Instructions to the Distance Project

- Sign up to the project on Lisam.

  – When? Sign up period: 2020-03-30 10:00 — 2020-04-06 10:00.

  – Where? Lisam - Signup - Project - Sign up - your student group. For example, if you are students in MAT2, you sign up under Project Sign up - Ii2 - MAT2.

- The Project will be released to the Lisam on Apr. 10, 2020.

  – Where? Lisam - Course documents - 7 project

- Which software? - Matlab.

- The Project contains 7 assignments.

- To pass the project, you need to write a report which contains two parts: Part I, Part II.

  – Part I: You choose two assignments out of 7 assignments to make a detailed report on this two assignments.

    * The detailed report means that each assignment should be given maximum 4 pages, i.e. two assignments contains maximum 8 pages. In this part, models, analyzes and results will be discussed independently, not only based on the questions contained in the assignment description. The idea is that you should analyze the data with open eyes and write the report with running text, i.e. not just answers to the questions.

  – Part II: You show your solutions to the rest of 5 assignments. Here you don't need to give extra information except solutions.

- Submit first version of your report to your teaching assistants not later than May 1, 2020.

  – They will check your report and guide you to avoid wrong directions or big mistakes.

  – Submit to their emails

    * Ii2, MAT2 submit to albfo733@student.liu.se - Albin Folkesson.

    * I2.a, I2.b submit to chrvo878@student.liu.se- Christian von Koch.

    * I2.c, I2.d submit to matth411@student.liu.se - Mattias Thor.

    * I2.e, I2.f submit to carok858@student.liu.se - Carl Oksanen

- Modify your report after you get feedback from the teaching assistants.

- Final version of your report will be submitted to the Lisam: Lisam - submissions.

  – Attach pdf.files titled, example, Project.pdf.

  – The submit entrance will open at 0:00 May 7, 2020.

  – Deadline for submission is at 23:00 May 15, 2020.

  – The submit entrance will close at 8:00 May, 16, 2020 which means submissions will NOT be accepted after 8:00, May 16, 2020.
